OUTREACH

A Wilderness Canoeing Experience in Algonquin Park

For Grade 8 & 9 Graduates

Outreach program is a 14-day Physical and Health Education credit course that introduces and focuses on outdoor summer activities. Students spend seven days at the Gould Lake Outdoor Centre learning new skills and preparing for a nine-day canoe trip into the wilderness of Algonquin Park.

This program teaches students how to live side-by-side with one another, challenge themselves mentally and physically and how to canoe trip safely using low-impact practices.

Successful students will receive a Grade 10 phys-ed credit (PAD205) in our outdoor classroom. Outreach is a stepping stone to our Outdoor Pursuits and Outdoor Skills programs.
